OUTLINES.

Judge Parker is not at all daunted by the outcry made by some Democrats against the resolutions which he proposes to introduce in the Denver convention eulogizing Mr. Cleveland; he is still determined to introduce what he considers the proper resolutions at the proper time——Mr. Murphy, of the New York delegation says he knows nothing about the Parker resolutions and they will have to be submitted to them before they are approved for introduction in the convention——The North Carolina Republican convention will meet in Charlotte August 26th to nominate a Governor and State officers——Mr. Taft with his family left Washington yesterday afternoon for Hot Springs, Va.; there was quite a party of friends at the depot to see him off; he had been kept busy with affairs of State up to the very hour of his departure ——The presentation of the silver service to the Cruiser North Carolina took place off Beaufort, N. C. bar yesterday afternoon and was marked by notable ceremonies; Lieutenant Governor Winston made the presentation speech and Captain Marshall responded most enthusiastically; The North Carolina Daughters of the American Revolution presented two handsome State flags to the cruiser ——Mr. Bryan had many callers yesterday, among them being Mr. Ridder, of the New York Staats Zeitung, who in a long conference urged the Nebraskan to withdraw from the contest and let some one be nominated who could win——Joel Chandler Harris, well known under the pseudonym of "Uncle Remus," died last night at his home in Atlanta, Ga.——The first Fourth of July disaster was an explosion in Kress' store in Cleveland, Ohio, last night, in which seven persons were killed and fully thirty were injured——New York markets: Money on call easy at 1 to 1 1-4 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-4, closing bid 1, offered 1 1-4; time loans weak and dull; rosin steady; turpentine firm at 43c.

It looks like it is going to be rather a rainy day for the Fourth festivities.

Wonder if any Presidential booms will be among the Fourth of July explosions today?

We hope you will have a pleasant Fourth and be ready for business on Monday with renewed energy.

Mr. Roosevelt seems to have actually abandoned the strenuous life for the time being and to have gone in for a real quiet time.

It will soon be no longer a matter of conjecture as to whom the Republicans will put up to be defeated by Hon. W. W. Kitchin, in the race for Governor.

Why should not Mr. Bryan follow Mr. Taft's example and give out his platform before hand? Is he afraid the convention would make too many changes in it?

If the nomination for the Vice Presidency must be given to the East why not name W. R. Hearst. He will harmonize very well with the head of the ticket.

That was an unusually fierce French duel fought between those Paris editors the other day. They continued the fight until one of the combatants was actually slightly wounded.

The Industrial News is tickled at the results of the Charlotte convention. It will "laugh out of the other side of its mouth" when it realizes what Mr. Kitchin has done to its candidate for Governor.

The Constitution ought to provide for a second Vice President, then maybe there would not be so much trouble every four years in getting some one to take second place on the tickets.

The Norfolk and Southern was a pet of the crowd in this State that has been making war on railroads, still it has been forced to the wall—not entirely, of course, as a result of the recent class of State legislation.

What do the delegates expect to do when they get to Denver besides endorse the action of Mr. Bryan regarding his own nomination and the drafting of the platform on which he will make the run for defeat?

As the man who will make the first seconding speech for the man who will be nominated for President in the Denver convention, Governor Glenn will be one of the most conspicuous members of that body.

Before the Democratic national party makes any declaration in its platform solely for the purpose of capturning any particular class of voters it should count up the instances in the past when political parties gained victory by such make-shift policy.

BUSY DAY IN COURT

...er of Impoetant Cases Clear... Docket During The ...s Yesterday.

A RECESS ...IL MONDAY

Will Richardson For Double Murder on Trial—Timothy Clemmons to Penitentiary—Gambling Cases Submitted—Eagleton.

Library of Congress

Perhaps never before were a larger number of important matters cleared from the docket in so short a time than during the two sessions of Superior Court yesterday, a recess having been taken pending the trial of Will Richardson, colored, charged with murder, until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

During the morning hour the jury which had in hearing the case of Timothy Clemmons, of Delgado, brought in a verdict of assault with felonious intent and he was sentenced to 15 years at hard labor in the State penitentiary; Sam Glover, colored, previously convicted of the murder of Albert Jones, another negro, was sentenced to be hanged on August 20th; Robert Eagles, colored, charged with stabbing to death another negro in a running fight in the northern part of the city eighteen months ago, submitted to manslaughter and was given two years on the roads; George Brown, charged with keeping a gambling house, submitted and was let off with a fine of $250 and costs and required to give bond of $250 not to engage in such conduct for at least two years, and John Rahm, colored, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was given six months on the roads.

During the afternoon Fred Walton and Katie Hewitt, the young white couple who were involved in no end of trouble a few weeks ago on account o fthe secret burial of an infant to hide the young woman's shame, submitted their case and were marfied in the Clerk's office, adjoining the court room, by Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of St. James Episcopal church, in consideration of which both defendants were let off with the costs upon good behavior and the groom's guarantee to live with the wife and care for her in the future, and most of the case for the State had been heard when a recess was taken at 5 o'clock in the case of the negro Will Richardson.

The verdict in the case of Timothy Clemmons, the white man charged with criminal assault, was returned about noon after the jury had received further instructions from Judge Peebles upon the convening of court yesterday morning. The point having been settled in the minds of the jury the twelve men were not long in making up their verdict that the defendant was guilty of an assault with felonious intent, whereupon Judge Peebles sent him to the penitentiary for 15 years. He was represented by L. Clayton Grant and Jos. W. Little, Esqs., and the verdict was rather regarded as a victory for the defense. Clemmons is a man of family and is understood to have formerly lived in Columbus county. His wife, who was not present at the trial, called on him yesterday afternoon at the jail. The jury which tried the case was composed of Messrs. Jas. H. Cowan, W. R. Dosher, E. S. Hancock, Louis Tyndall, D. J. Prease, J. A. Hines, J. G. Kuhlken, M. F. H. Gouverneur, H. J. Gerken, Jas. Kerr, J. F. Head and L. W. Moore.

The Richardson Case.

The trial of Will Richardson was entered upon first thing yesterday morning after the Clemmons jury had received the instructions desired and eleven of the twelve men required to pass upon the case were secured from the regular panel for the week and the special venire of 150 summoned for the day. The panel was completed at 12:30 o'clock as follows: Greene Fenley, Anson Alligood, J. R. Utley, J. L. Fennell, Eli Cavenaugh, Asa J. Burriss, F. A. Mason, J. J. Craig, W. P. McLaughon, D. D. Hankins, J. A. Rogers and Herbert Johnson.

Richardson is charged with the double murder of Josephine Pigford, a colored woman of low character, and Slocum Williams, another negro, in Kellogg's alley, between Third and Fourth and Hanover and Brunswick streets, last Christmas eve. Richardson formerly lived with the woman and returned to the city shortly before Christmas after an absence of several months visiting the Pigford woman's house. The bodies, it will be recalled, were found in the woman's house on Christmas morning, the man shot through the head and the woman through the heart. Richardson left the city but was subsequently arrested at Pinehurst and brought back to the city by Officer C. G. Jones. He is represented at the trial by Brooke G. Empie and Walter P. Gafford, Esqs., while Solicitor Duffy is being assisted with the prosecution by Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq.

A large number of witnesses were examined before court took a recess at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the adjournment being until Monday on

Only one game was played in the Eastern Carolina Circuit yesterday this having been at Raleigh with Wilson, rain having interferred both at Wilmington and Goldsboro. In the game at Raleigh the Tobacconists closed the door upon the heels of the Red Sox two to nothing, the feature having been a home run by Mills in the eighth inning.

At Wilmington both teams reported on the grounds and had field practice, but shortly before the hour for the game the lowering clouds that had hung thick all the afternoon gave forth a downpour that made it impossible to continue an unequal contest against the weather. All the teams in the League will play double-headers today and the percentage column is expected to undergo several changes when the battle of the bats and balls is over. The game here this morning will be called at 10 A. M. and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. For the latter game Bussey and Sexton will be the opposing riflemen.

Happy Greeting for Catcher Kite.

Notwithstanding the rain yesterday afternoon, between three and four hundred of the more ardent supporters of the game, both ladies and gentlemen, were in the grandstand and witnessed a very happy little incident of the marriage of Mr. Albert Harvey Kite, catcher on the Wilmington team, which was solemnized the evening before. The Wilmington players had taken refuge in the eastern wing of the grandstand while it was raining and at a given signal from near the centre of the large assemblage Captain Smith went over and escorted the clever Jerseyman over to the entrance where he was met by Captain William F. Robertson to whom had been assigned the pleasant task of presenting to Mr. Kite and bride two very handsome wedding presents, a magnificent chest of silver from the followers of the game at large in Wilmington and a beautiful silver set from the Wilmington Lodge of Elks. Captain Robertson made an exceedingly happy little speech delivering the tokens of good will and esteem to the favorite player, who was surrounded by his colleagues on the team and the presentation was greeted with the most enthusiastic cheers from the audience. Mr. Kite is not an orator but a ball player. He was at a loss for words more than to bow his thanks to Captain Robertson and the audience with a brief acknowledgement of the compliment, but he asks the baseball editor of the Star to return the heartfelt thanks of Mrs. Kite and himself to all who were so kind in favoring them with such a magnificent expression of their esteem and good will.

The Game at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., July 3.—With a home run in which the ball was driven in "hot shot" order over right field fence by Mills, the Wilson team this afternoon defeated Raleigh in one of the prettiest games of the season. Neither side had scored up to the eighth inning when Mills set the fans wild with his home drive. The score.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Greensboro, N. C., July 3.—The Executive Committee of the Republican party of North Carolina, met in this city today and called the State Convention to nominate candidates for State officers to be held in Charlotte on August 26th. Asheville and Greensboro were other towns competing for the convention. The committee was in session four hours, discussing plans for the campaign. An invitation was extended to William H. Taft, Republican nominee for President to address the convention at Charlotte.

CARRIERS' SESSIONS

THE VARIOUS FEATURES

Postmaster Wallace Delivered Welcome Address—Some 200 Delegates Participate in Outing at Beach—Final Meeting.

The opening sessions of the North Carolina Rural Carriers' Association which met in annual convention here yesterday with an unusually large attendance of delegates, was characterized by excellent addresses, important business meetings morning and afternoon and a delightful social gathering at Wrightsville Beach last night as a grand finale of the day's events.

The features of the programme for the day beginning with the opening session yesterday morning at 9 o'clock were carried out splendidly, with the exception of the evening meeting which was postponed to enable the delegates to take the trip to the Beach, as planned by the committee on arrangements. The attendance of delegates is a marked feature of the enthusistic assemblage, almost every county in the State being represented and the interest manifested in the proceedings being wide-spread among the rural carriers throughout the State.

In the absence of Mayor Springer, who was prevented from delivering the welcome address on account of important business engagements, Postmaster T. E. Wallace, of Wilmington, cordially welcomed the delegates and visitors to the city, wishing them a successful and interesting meeting. His address was very able and dealing with the many phases of the work of the Rural Carriers, his remarks were instructive and greatly enjoyed. He held the closest attention of his audience. Following was the response in behalf of the State Association by Mr. Sion H. Rogers, vice president, of Monroe, who delivered a well prepared address which heartily met with the approval of the carriers as a fitting response to the address of Postmaster Wallace. Mr. C. R. Satterfield, of Person county, also made a very appropriate short talk in response.

The Rural Carriers as men who travel the roads in the country sections in discharge of their duties, are acquainted with the improvements and the necessity of the same to the county roads and addresses on this subject, which is annually discussed by the body, were delivered by Messrs. T. C. Smith, Gastonia; S. H. Rogers, Monroe, and Mr. W. H. Andrews, of Speed. A few other routine business matters were disposed of, concluding the morning session. This included the appointment of the various committees as follows:

Credentials—Miss Alice Fowler, Burlington; J. W. Brooks, Roxboro; J. C. Pierce, Rocky Mount.

Auditing—L. D. Hamlin, Durham; L. S. Belk, Union county; Perry Morgan, Harnett.

Constitution—J. M. Ballard, Newton; B. L. Hester, Creedmoor; T. A. May, Elon College

Resolutions—A. S. Miller, Catawba; T. C. Smith, Gastonia, and L. S. Bradsher, Rose Hill.

The session yesterday afternoon convened at 2 o'clock with another large attendance, and was principally consumed with the discussion of organization, its purposes and achievments by Messrs. A. J. Hunter, of Charlotte, C. H. Bains, of Nashville, and S. H. Rogers, of Monroe. Every detail in connection with the Association was forcefully brought out and general plans were made for the betterment of the organization. The subject of insurance and plans for National and State insurance were discussed among the Carriers and a committee composed of President C. U. Monday, of Asheville; L. D. Hamlin, Durham; T. V. Howell, Peachland; J. C. Pierce, Rocky Mount, and E. D. Pearsall, Rocky Point, were appointed to make an investigation and report to the Association this morning. The insurance matters were presented to the Association with the object of forming an organization of this nature among the carriers and the committee will determine whether they will accept the insurance from a State or National company. The adjournment of this session was late in the afternoon.

At 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon the carriers gathered at corner of Front and Princess streets, where they boarded a car for the Beach. There was some one hundred and fifty carriers and visitors and this sojourn was one of rare pleasure. The committee on arrangements had made elaborate preparations for a fish supper and the visitors were highly entertained, returning to the city last night shortly after 10:30 o'clock.

The delegates who arrived yesterday are as follows: Messrs. W. McHargue, Lumberton; F. M. Sinclair, Sanford; W. T. Robbins, Phoenix; S. L. Bradsher, Rose Hill; Thos. V. Howell, Peachland; Luther S. Griffin, Un-

PRESENTATION EXERCISES

Handsome Silver Service From North Carolina to Her Namesake in United States Off Beaufort Bar Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Morehead City, N. C., July 3.—Something absolutely unique occurred here today, this being the presentation of a splendid silver service, North Carolina's gift to her namesake cruiser, in the open sea instead of in the harbor. The morning was stormy, but the afternoon when the ceremony occurred, was ideal.

Lieut. Gov. Winston, who is really now the Governor during Governor Glenn's absence from North Carolina, was a central figure. He went early to the cruiser on the Cutter Apache, and was given the proper honors. The Apache, returning to Morehead City, took out the remainder of the official party, the Seminole carrying the unofficial. The North Carolina lies a mile from Lookout Bight.

The scene was striking, a sea picture in fact, with the crescent line of shore tipped at either horn by light house and saving stations. Under the guns of the after turret was the silver service, with a background of flags and the officers declared they had never seen a service equal to it in appropriateness of design.

The presentation occurred on the after deck, where were gathered 500 visitors, the 37 officers and 854 of the crew, Lieut. Governor Winston and Captain W. A. Marshall standing the hollow square thus formed. Representative Chas. U. Harris, of the Legislature, introduced Lieut. Gov. Winston, who spoke as stirringly about North Carolina's part in all the wars; of her having given John Paul Jones to the navy, and of the great work done by her four secretaries of the Navy, Branch, Badger, Graham and Dobbin, Graham having opened Japan to the world, and Dobbin having caused the first survey of the Valley of the Amazon to be made. Gov. Winston alluded strikingly to Ensign Worth Bagley's death in Cuba and to the gallantry of Lieut. Com. Victor Blue, of the North Carolina, a remarkable demonstration of applause greeting this allusion.

Capt. Marshall accepted the gift. The band played North Carolina's favorite, "The Old North State." The visitors, fully half ladies, sang to the accompaniment. Mrs. Van Landingham, State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, presented a North Carolina flag, one of silk for the battalion, the other of bunting for the mast.

Capt. Marshall accepting these flags said his only regret was that he had not been born under their folds in order that he might make an eloquent reply, since all North Carolinians were eloquent. The large flag was at once hoisted to the main mast. Capt. Marshall led three cheers for North Carolina by the ship's company and then three were given by the visitors for the cruiser, officers and crew. Refreshments were served including punch from the punch bowl of the splendid service, which the officers declared is not equalled in the whole Navy. Lieut. Gov. Winston was given a salute of seventeen guns on leaving the cruiser.

Nine of the officers and fourteen of the midshipmen of the cruiser accompanied him to Morehead City, where a grand ball was given in their honor, led by Midshipman Smythe and Miss Phelps, of Southport, N. C., this being followed by a banquet at which Governor Winston presided.

MRS. PREMPERT'S FUNERAL.

Held Yesterday Morning at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The funeral of Mrs. Lisette Prempert, whose death occurred Thursday at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. J. H. W. Bonitz, on Market street, was conducted from St. Paul's Lutheran Church yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. G. S. Bearden, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, assisted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, officiating. Many sympathizing friends paid their last tribute of respect to her memory.

The pal-bearers were as follows: Honorary, Major D. O'Connor and Captain F. W. Ortmann; active, Messrs. Theodore Runge, J. H. Rehder, J. C. Boesch, William Niestle, Henry Gieschen and C. W. Polvogt.

Races at the Beach.

Yacht races, canoe races, boat races. Cars to the Beach every half hour. **

NAVAL RESERVES TO CRUISE IN CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Washington, July 3.—Orders have been issued at the Navy Department for the Cruiser Prairie to proceed to Morehead, N. C., and take on board there the Naval Militia of that State for a cruise in Chesapeake Bay from July 16th to 28th. The cruiser will then proceed to New York City for a similar duty, taking aboard the naval militia of that State for a cruise in Gardner's Bay from August 7th to 18th. The naval militia consists of all the divisions of Naval Reserves in the State.

A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Celebration at Wilmington and Her Seaside Resorts Will be Notable One Today.

EVENTS AT THE BEACHES

Yacht Races and Aquatic Sports at Lumina—Junior Order Excursion to Carolina—Baseball in the City.

If the weather is at all inviting today Wilmington will turn out en masse for a glorious celebration of the Fourth, the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of American Independence. In the city there will be a general recession from business, all public buildings will be closed during the day or will observe holiday hours, the banks will transact no business and employers and employes will join one another in a patriotic observance of the natal day of the Republic.

In the city the chief attraction will be two games of League baseball between Wilmington and Kinston, morning and afternoon, and at both Carolina and Wrightsville Beaches there will be a variety of entertainment for all who journey to those delightful resorts for the day. The morning baseball game with Kinston at the park will be called at 10 o'clock and the afternoon game at 4 P. M. There will be very large crowds at each of these games and a fine article of the sport is promised. The crack batteries of both teams have been reserved for the Fourth and devotees of the great National game may expect the best that is going for this occasion.

The heaviest travel will doubtless be to Wrightsville Beach where the hotels, club houses and pleasure resorts will be thrown wide and will be in gala attire for the holiday. Lumina will be especially attractive for all who journey thither and all manner of amusement has been provided. The Tidewater Power Company has made arrangements for handling a very large crowd. A special train has been chartered from the Atlantic Coast Line, consisting of an engine and flat cars and these will be operated from Tenth and Princess streets to the baseball park, reserving the regular equipment in toto for handling the regular traffic to Wrightsville. The train will be operated on a convenient schedule and the cars have been so equipped with seats and safeguards that the danger of accident is reduced to a minimum. The beach cars will not stop at the ball park on the trip out but will stop on the return after the games as usual.

Carolina Club Regatta.

The annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club will attract many visitors to the piers and along the water front of the club course to watch the white winged fleet in its annual contest for the handsome cups offered as prizes. The race will start at noon promptly, all conditions being most favorable at that hour, though yachts are required to report earlier for measurements, etc. In the race will be the following clippers:

Don Julian—Capt. W. L. Parsley.
Gambol—Capt. S. P. Cowan.
K. M. B.—Capt. M. S. Willard.
Emma—Capt. C. W. Worth.
Puzzle—Capt. Ed Metts.
Thalia—Capt. Geo. Carmichael.
Yonalee—Capt. Geo. Davis.
Carolina—Capt. B. H. Bridgers.
Osprey—Capt. T. P. Hammer

Sports at Lumina.

Much interest is being shown in the canoe race that is to take place in front of Lumina, starting at 4 o'clock. Following is the list of entries so far: Burke H. Bridgers and Preston Cummings, H. M. Chase and Geo. Davis, David Murchison and William Watters, Raymond Hunt and H. DeW. Rapalje, Williams Harriss and Spencer Nichols. For the fishing boat race there are four entries so far, but there will probably be more for today. This race will start at 4:30 o'clock.

For the canoe race three prizes are given, a large cup for first prize, a smaller cup for the second prize and five round-trip beach tickets for the third prize.

The winner of the fishing boat race will receive a prize of $10.00; the boat coming in second will receive $5.00, and the one finishing third five round-trip tickets to the beach.

No doubt all of the races will prove very exciting, especially the canoe and fishing boat races.

The swimming race will start at 3 o'clock and will be for both short and long distance courses. All who contemplate entering these contests are requested to meet Mr. H. C. Keen at Lumina not later than 2 o'clock.

The swimming races will be three in number, quarter-mile, half-mile and mile, and they will take place immediately off Lumina in the ocean where they may be witnessed by all who care to attend. The quarter-mile race will be for the Juniors of the Y. M. C. A., in charge of Assistant Secretary Robert E. Hatch. The course will be from the wreck of the old General Beauregard to shore. The half-mile race will be from shore to

A STATE SHIP SUBSIDY.

In view of the comparatively early completion of the Panama canal, the people of New Orleans are considering steps whereby their city may secure its share of the foreign commerce this country is expected to gain thereby. By location and other natural advantages New Orleans, like other Southern cities, is entitled to a large share of the commerce which will pass through the canal. There is reason to believe that the large cities of the East, through their great wealth and other resources, will be able to secure the lion's share of this traffic unless extraordinary measures are taken to defeat their plans, which are to prevent the ports of the South from reaping the benefits of thei natural advantages. The business men of New Orleans consider this an exceptional case and one that requires extreme measures to prevent their city being deprived of her just share of this commerce. To do this it is proposed that the State make provision somewhat in the nature of a subsidy for a New Orleans ocean steamship line. It is not to be by way of a grant of money, but simply a release from taxation by the company for a certain number of years. It is, in consequence proposed that the Legislature submit to the people for ratification an amendment to the State constitution exempting the steamship company from taxation.

Under the existing conditions and the great importance to the port of New Orleans that she should be put on an equal footing in respect to this canal commerce with other cities which have not her natural advantages, but, by reason of others, chiefly fictitious, are liable to take from that city her just share of the commerce, this becomes an exceptional case and the general objection to ship subsidies should not be made to apply. It is an entirely different question from the National plan of trying to overcome the injury done to American shipping through the high tariff by subsidizing a certain class of American vessels engaged in foreign trade.

NORTH CAROLINA AT THE CONVENTION.

No doubt the North Carolina delegation will be among the most prominent at the Denver convention. We believe every one of the delegates at large have been strong Bryan men ever since 1896. The Governor is, at Mr. Bryan's special request, to make the first seconding speech. Senator Overman, because of the prominent position he occupies in the Senate, would be a distinguished personage in any gathering of the leading men of the Nation. Senator Simmons and Mr. Hale stand forth as among the most ardent admirers of Mr. Bryan and earnest advocates of all that his political policies represent, with the exception perhaps that neither of them has yet followed Mr. Bryan so far as to openly endorse his advocacy of Government ownership of railroads. With the exception of Mr. Overman they are all classed as Bryanites of the Bryanites. The Junior Senator is more conservative in his political views. He has never been carried away by any new-fangled political schemes or catch-vote plans. In taking his position on any political question he views the proposition on every side and then advocates that which he believes to be to the best interests of the people he represents, without regard to what effect it will have on his future career. This huing to the line of duty, coupled with high ability has placed him in an enviable position in the Senate and will make him one of the most prominent personages in the Denver convention. On the whole North Carolina will have a representation in the convention that any State in the Union might be proud of.

THE PEACE MAKER OF EUROPE.

King Edward has established a justifiable reputation for being the most politic and the greatest peace maker of all the rulers of Eurpoe. He is distinctly a man of peace, and at the same time one of the shrewdest and most far seeing of Europe's royalty. It is true that he is closely related by blood or marriage to most of the rulers of the different nations, but that fact would be of no effect were he inclined to persue a less peaceful course. Time and again has he by his intercession and his tact brought about friendly feeling between jealous potentates where there had been strained relations and danger of war. One of the "hardest cases" he has had to handle has been that of his nephew, the son of his oldest sister, Kaiser William of Germany, who, it seems, has ever been willing and anxious to pander to the national prejudice of his people against those of Great Britain. Many people are so prejudiced against a "King" that they can see no good in one, but King Edward deserves their regard as the peacemaker of Europe.

KITCHIN, THEN AND NOW.

If the Republicans are counting on those members of the Democratic party who were opposed to Mr. Kitchin's nomination to be lukewarm as to his election and on those newspapers which fought his being chosen as the standard bearer of the party in the State to oppose his being continued its leader by the choice of the people at the poles they are mightily mistaken. Mr. Kitchin, as candidate for the nomination had strong opposition in his party. Mr. Kitchin, as the nominee of his party will have the united support of the members of his party. There is a great difference between the attitude of many Democrats toward Mr. Kitchin as candidate for the nomination and as candidate of the party in the contest against the Republicn nominee. The Republicans will find that those who opposed him then are now united with his closest friends in the purpose to roll up a big majority for him.

Apparently there is to be no peace for the Kentucky colonel—Omaha Bee.

Don't think it. A hammock swung beneath two shady oaks; the mint growing gloriously green nearby; spring water, cracked ice, two sable attendants to fan him, and the julep winning out on the straw vote!—Atlanta Constitution.

What good does all that do the Kentucky colonel when in about seventy-five per cent of the counties of the State he could not get the one other and to him the most important concemetant of the above-mentioned aggiegation.

England has just followed the example of the United States and mobelized the greatest fleet she has assembled in modern times. As a great many people think the object of our government in its action was to show to Japan what it could do in the way of quick concentration of a powerful naval force, Great Britain's more recent action along the same line was also for the purpose of showing to Germany what she could do along the same line.

CONDITION OF CITY MARKET

"Citizen" Makes Complaint That it is Not Properly Kept.

(Communicated.)

Editor of the Morning Star:

Sir: With all due respect to the Sanitary Board of the City of Wilmington, I beg leave to call attention to the condition of the city market on South Front street.

Should one of these commissioners come within fifty steps of this market one of these Summer nights and have his nostrils regaled with the odor which lingers thereabout, he would not need further notice of the unsanitary condition of that neighborhood; and this is the place from which a large number of our citizens are supplied with fresh (?) meat.

It is of the utmost importance that everything unsanitary be removed from the neighborhood where people sleep and it is during these moments of relaxation that the human system is most susceptible to the attacks of poisonous germs.

Please be good enough, Mr. Editor, to publish this card that a danger may be averted and a nuisance abated.

Yours respectfully,
CITIZEN.

Wilmington, July 2, 1908.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Representative Littlefield, of Maine, very correctly sums up a part of Mr. Roosevelt's record in the words: "Results indicate that the enforcement of the anti-trust law has been more a matter of proclamation than performance." The only weakness in the characterization is in its limitation to the anti-trust culmination of the president.—Raleigh Times.

—It is estimated that the Democratic convention, delegates and visitors, spent $20,000 a day during the several days of the convention. This is altogether probable, $100,000 being a very conservative estimate for the money left in the Queen City. Among other things, it is estimated that something like 30,000 bottles of beer were consumed during those five or six days.—Winston-Salem Journal.

—The Georgia prohibitionists are having all sorts of trouble with "near bear" as substitute for Budweiser, Schlitz, Blue Ribbon, Pabst, Wurtzberger, High Life, Hoffbrau Export, Pilsner et cetera, et cetera, et cetera. Beginning yesterday the dealers in "nar beer" were required to pay a license tax of $200. In other words in prohibition Georgia now what you have to do to get a bottle of beer, according to one citizen, is to "drink two bottles of 'near bear.'"—Winston Salem Journal.

—We hope there will be no more campaigns in North Carolina like the one just ended. The expenditure of thousands of dollars bodes no good for the State, neither does the great bitterness engendered help the Democratic party. Public opinion is against both money and bitterness and if it will only express itself emphatically, there will be an end of it. As a measure of relief we believe in a State primary, for one thing, and the next Legislature ought to give it to us.—Lexington Dispatch.

—If plans filed the other day with the New York City building superintendent's office by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, are carried out New York will soon have an office building 909 feet in height. This new steel-boned giant is intended to contain sixty-two stories, or sixteen more than the Metropolitan Life tower, which it overtops by 209 feet. Its flag-pole will run up 150 feet higher still. The roof will be but seventy-five feet lower than that of the Eiffel Tower, the highest structure yet reared, and that all regular buildings now in existence are outdone goes without saying. Of the great height designed, thirty-four stories will be represented in a main building, a tower carrying the offices on skyward to a cupola—the general style of both the Metropolitan and Singer buildings. In the structure will be thirty-seven passenger elevators, eight running to the very top, besides freight elevators. The present big building of the Equitable will be pulled down to make room for this record-breaking successor. Is the plan for such a structure wise? Evidently doubtful. The Wall Street Journal remarks that the management must convince the public on several points or encounter general criticism.Charlotte Observer.

—Ned—That was a hard blow to literature yesterday! Ted—What was that? Ned—Why, lightning struck a house setting fire to a magazine in the cellar, which exploded, shattering the first and second stories and killing two authors who were at work on the third story.—The Bohemian.

—Washington, July 2.—News of a very sad accident was brought to this city last night by Captain Bonner of the gas boat "Marion," who stated that the young son of Mr. Henry Ormond, of Bayside, N. C., was accidentally drowned while with a picnic party to Pamlico Beach, a pleasure resort about thirty miles down Pamlico river from this city late yesterday afternoon. It seems that Rudolph Ormond, the eight-year-old son of Mr. Henry Ormond of Bayside, was a member of a picnic party yesterday from Bayside to Pamlico Beach on the gas boat Marion, of Bath, with Captain Bonner in charge, and as nearly as can be ascertained, the little fellow was sitting on a box on the deck of the boat by his mother's side when something in front of the boat attracted the attention of the party and in jumping up to see what caused the excitement the box toppled over, throwing the little fellow into the river.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years, 50c.

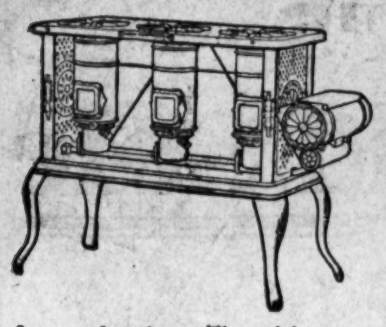
You Will Need an Oil Stove



When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts—how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The quick concentrated heat of the goes directly to boil the kettle or bake the bread, and none is diffused about the room to overheat it. Thus using the "New Perfection" is real kitchen comfort. Made in three sizes and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION

BELLE of VIRGINIA
BLENDED RYE

Belle of Virginia Rye deserves its name, and the name is certainly one of distinction and old-time aristocracy. It's a whiskey we are proud of on account of its purity and high quality and its hosts of admiring friends who will drink nothing else. Belle of Virginia is a blend—a scientific, uniform blend of pure, old goods. It's a whiskey with a flavor, and a fine, invigorating after-effect long to be remembered by those who drink it. Try it and you will make no mistake.

HIT THE WRONG BANK

Story of the Man Who Wanted to Open a Small Account.

A WALL STREET EXPERIENCE.

The Would Be Depositor of Modest Means Found Himself In a Place For Millionaires—An Official's Courteous Explanation and Advice.

"When," said the man who writes pieces for magazines and things, "by some strange and unprecedented chance, I had got hold of a matter of $350 all at one and the same time it looked big to me. By an even more curious chance there wasn't anything that I really needed to do with the money, so I decided that I'd bank it.

"Now, I knew in a general way that in order to put money in a bank you've got to be known and give your pedigree and look respectable, and all that, and I hated to approach a bank without any sort of credentials. Therefore I went to the business manager of a certain magazine which occasionally prints pieces that I write and asked him what I'd better do.

"'Simplest thing in the world,' said he. 'I'll give you a note to our bank.'

"That sounded fine to me. He wrote me the note, and I started for the bank a good deal tickled over how easy the little depositing proceeding had been made.

"The bank to which I had the note is in Wall street. I asked the uniformed man who was standing around where I'd find the receiving teller's window, and he pointed that window out to me. I got into line and watched the teller take in money.

"I must own that I was a bit stalled to note the great size of some of the deposits he was receiving. Why, fellows were giving the money to him by the satchelful. But I had my note in my pocket, and I remained complacent enough with that consciousness.

"When I reached the receiving teller I passed in my note, and the receiving teller, a decidedly civil young man, opened it and read it. Then he looked at me, after which he read the note again, this time with a sort of puzzled expression on his countenance. I didn't see why the receiving teller should be puzzled over such a simple matter, but puzzled he seemed. He rang a bell, and the uniformed man who'd directed me to that window appeared.

"'Show this gentleman to the office of the cashier,' said the receiving teller to the uniformed man, at the same time regarding me with a pleasant smile, and the uniformed man led me down the passageway and took me behind a railing where there was a handsome gray haired gentleman sitting at a desk.

"The handsome gray haired gentleman received me cordially and invited me to be seated. I handed him my note, which the receiving teller had returned to me, and he leaned back in his chair and read it carefully. Then he, too, looked puzzled after he'd read the note a second time. Then he looked at me pleasantly over the tops of his spectacles.

"'Ahem!' said the handsome gray haired gentleman, not disagreeably, but in a nice, banker-like way. 'Might I—er—inquire, Mr. Penphist, without seeming to be unduly inquisitive, as to how—er—large a—er—balance you would usually be carrying?'

"Well, that was a civil enough question, nothing inquisitive about it.

"'Why, sir,' I said to the handsome gray haired gentleman, 'I am opening an account with a matter of some $350, but I shall no doubt make some additions to that within the next two months, and probably I shall carry a balance of—well, say, $500 or $600 right along.'

"The kindly cashier with the gray hair fairly beamed upon me.

"'Er—just so, just so,' said he, twiddling his thumbs. 'We feel complimented, Mr. Penphist, we really do, that you should have come to us. And it is unfortunate—er—really unfortunate, that we are so utterly lacking in facilities for taking care of accounts of such a character.'

"'You see, Mr. Penphist, our institution is of—er—a sort of special character. It is used as a depository by—well, perhaps I should put it in a clearer manner. I say it to you quite in confidence, you understand, Mr. Penphist, but we have only 1,660 depositors on our books, and these 1,600 depositors' aggregate balances amount all the time to a matter of $110,000,000.'

"Well, that was about enough. I saw the light then. I'd drifted into a millionaires' bank on the careless credentials of a business manager who'd written me that note no doubt in a thoughtless mood.

"The gray haired cashier acted bully about it. He recommended a fine bank to me—one that combines perfect responsibility with the necessary facilities for handling accounts like—er—yours, Mr. Penphist,' he added.

"For all of the cashier's niceness I walked out of there into the cold gray light of Wall street feeling like a good deal of a human caterpillar.

"I didn't go to the bank recommended to me by the cashier; didn't have the nerve to visit any more banks. I've got $62 left now of the $350, but I'm going to use that as a nest egg, and maybe some day even yet I'll have a bank account."—New York Sun.

account of the National holiday today. Judge Peebles ordered that the jury be kept together in charge of Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox under the usual instructions. However, he gave them liberty of attending the ball games and spending Saturday and Sunday at the beach at the expense of the county, of course.

The witnesses yesterday were all for the State which will close its case Monday morning. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, proved the corpus delicti. Mandy Wortham, who lived next door to the Pigford house, said she knew Richardson and that he had lived with the Pigford woman for some time; saw the prisoner the morning of the tragedy in the house where he had words with his former paramour and said "I'm going to kill you, damn you." Saw him later between 6 and 7 o'clock; came out of the Pigford woman's house and stood on the piazza. Witness heard shots between 12 and 1 o'clock Christmas eve night but there were many Christmas fireworks and she only sent over to the house to find out what the Pigford woman had cried out for; the men whom she sent came back and said the door was locked and they could get no answer; next morning the bodies were found. Luther Doughty, one of the negroes sent over to the house, corroborated this statement. Rachel Roberts also heard the shooting and made inquiry but got no answer from the house. Violet Moore saw Richardson at the house Christmas eve and heard him make threats towards the Pigford woman. Bettie Pigrod, sister of the deceased, testified along the same lines. Hattie Henry, alias Sissy Lowe, also saw Richardson and heard threats. Rosa Teachey was over at the Pigford woman's house between 11 and 12 o'clock the night of the tragedy and saw Slocum Williams, Richardson, Josephine Pigford and others there; heard Richardson order Williams from the house but he did not go. Witness left and knew no more until the bodies were found next morning. Geo. W. Thomas, colored, saw Richardson on the railroad yards within three blocks of the house at 4 A. M. morning of the tragedy. Officer C. G. Jones testified to having followed this clue up, arresting Richardson at Pinehurst. A host of other witnesses, residents of the alley, identified Richardson as the man seen about the house during the day.

The defense is proceeding with the cross-examination along the line that Williams may have killed the woman and then killed himself or vice versa, the door having been locked when the officer reached there when the bodies were found by the blood which had dripped through the floor. The State, however, has shown that there were no weapons whatever in the house.

Only a brief recess from 1 to 2 o'clock was taken for dinner yesterday, the court having worked right through in an unsuccessful effort to close the Richardson case during the day.

The Gambling Case.

The case of George H. Brown, for conducting a gambling house was brought up by Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for the defendant, presenting a certificate from Dr. T. S. Burbank to the effect that imprisonment for the defendant would cost him his life, he being physically unable to bear it. City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., represented the State with Solicitor Duffy and urged that an extreme penalty be imposed as the defendant had once before had a judgment suspended over him for a like offense and that the place kept by Brown had a baneful effect on the youth of the city as the personnel of the witnesses would evidence. A fine of $250 was imposed and the defendant was required to give $250 justified bond to appear at each term of the court for two years and show that he has not engaged again in gambling or conducting a gaming house. This was arranged and the defendant was discharged.

Submitted to Burglary.

During the day Eugene Jackson, colored, the escaped convict who entered the house of a respectable colored man in the city, broke open a trunk and stole a suit of clothes for which he exchanged his convict stripes, pleaded guilty of burglary in the second degree and as there were extenuating circumstances, this was accepted by the Solicitor and the prisoner was given 15 years at hard labor in the State penitentiary.

John Rahm, colored, suomitted in the same connection to carrying a concealed weapon and was given six months on the roads.

Robert Eagleton, the negro who stabbed another to death in a running fight which took place some time ago, submitted to manslaughter and was given two years on the New Hanover roads, as it was shown that he was running at the time he inflicted the mortal wound on his adversary.

Sam Glover Sentenced.

For the first time in a number of years in a New Hanover court room, attendants upon the session witnessed the unusual spectacle of seeing a man sentenced to death in the case of Sam Glover, colored, previously convicted of the murder of Albert Jones. Thursday, August 20th, was named as the date and the hours between 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. The prisoner was represented by L. Clayton Grant and Jos. W. Little, Esqs., and Judge Peebles stated from the bench that he would recommend commutation to life imprisonment by the Governor as there were mitigating circumstances. Attorney Grant will later secure a statement from the Judge and a petition from members of the jury who tried him and forward the same to Raleigh.

Married in the Court House.

The marriage of Fred Walton and Katie Hewitt, the young couple involved in the sensational charge of secretly burying the body of an infant, was an unusual spectacle and the young man came bravely forward to do all in his power to right the wrong he had done. The young woman had been in custody of the Salvation Army and Adjutant Yates was present in the court room when the settlement of the case was effected, the defendants being represented by Herbert McClammy and Woodus Kellum, Esqs. Upon evidence to the court that the marriage had taken place and that both were reconciled to one another, the costs were paid and both left the court room.

Today will be the big day of the annual meeting and will convene this morning at 8 o'clock, taking up first the reports of the committees and other general business. The carriers are looking forward with much interest to the address of Postmaster Willis G. Briggs, of Raleigh, who is expected to be present at this session and there will also be an address by a special representative from the Department in Washington.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the final meeting which will be the most important of them all and the officers for the ensuing year will be elected and the place for the annual meeting next year chosen. The character of the hospitality of Wilmington toward the State Rural Carriers Association, as expressed by the visitors, is princely. Wilmington has lost none of her former prestige on that line.

LOCAL DOTS.

Crist, of Winston-Salem, at the recent annual convention of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias in Raleigh. The watch is suitably inscribed and makes a very handsome gift to the Grand Chancellor

MARRIED YESTERDAY EVENING

Miss Fannie May Walton and Mr. Foster Porter Davis Wed.

A marriage of much interest to their many friends in Wilmington was that of Mr. Foster Porter Davis, a clever young Wilmingtonian, chemist for the Standard Turpentine Company of this city, and Miss Fannie May Walton, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Walton, also of Wilmington, which took place at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening at the residence of Elder J. T. Johnson, of the Second Advent Church, No. 821 South Sixth street. It was a quiet but very pretty ceremony and was witnessed only by relatives and a few very intimate friends. The bride was attended as maid-of-honor by her cousin, Miss Lane, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Spoons Potter. After the ceremony they received the congratulations of those assembled and left for the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Davis, No. 711 South Second street, where they will reside for the present.

Pounded Offensive Negro Good.

Market street near Second was the scene of a rather sensational occurrence last night a few minutes after 8 o'clock when Mr. R. T. Windley, the well known timber dealer, delivered a sound drubbing to E. R. Telfair, a bumptious negro, who with two others said to have been half drunk, occupied the sidewalk to the exclusion of everybody else and forced Mr. Windley in turning out for them to run into a little child who was approaching from the other side. Mr. Windley said that after passing the negroes he remonstrated with them about their conduct and Telfair put up his guards as if to fight and he lit into him. Both were arrested by Officer W. C. Moore and Mr. Windley was recognized for his appearance before the Mayor today at noon. Telfair later gave bond with his brother as surety and was released.

—'It's so ridiculous,' said Cholly, "to say that clothes make the man." "Indeed?" remarked Miss Wise. "Yaah. Yuo see, if a fellow like me didn't have such lots of clothes he wouldn't need a man."—Philadelphia Press.

PARTY AT OAK ISLAND.

House Party Attended by Thirty Guests, Delightful Affair.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oak Island Station, N. C., July 3.—A jolly party of thirty from Wilmington and Southport and other invited guests have sojourned this week at Monkey Inn House, at Oak Island Station, where a delightful house-party given by several young men of Southport has been in progress. Every feature of the happy outing has been a source of infinite pleasure to the many visitors and the occasion has been a happy success. Unusual interest has been taken by the many pleasure-seekers and visitors in the historic surroundings. Oak Island has a beautiful location being a short distance from Fort Caswell and near Body Island. Many forms of pleasure have been indulged in and the participants have spent a week of interest and merriment.

The following compose the party: Chaperones, Mrs. Carrie Burriss and Mrs. Viola Guthrie. Invited guests from Southport, Misses Ida and Annie Mawson, Eva and Annie St.George, Ellan Windsor, Mary, Beulah and Leah Weeks, Susie, Mary and Blanche Newton, Sophronia Langston, Elizabeth Thompson, Lottie May Newton, Charlotte Atkins, Edna Davis, Minnie Pepper, Cassie Mintz and Mrs. Winnie Davis; Messrs. Howard Curtis, James Craig, Rivers St.George, Junius Davis, Fred Smith, Sandford Ruark, Ed Hood, Charley Gause, Robert Thompson, Willie Davis. Those from Wilmington were: Misses Carrie Drew, Mary Legge and Messrs James McCray, Joseph Ruark, Esq., Sanford, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Skinner, Wilson; W. T. Wilson, Esq., Winston-Salem; Miss Mary Hill, and Mr. John McKee, Abbeville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Thompson, Aspinwall, Pa.; Mrs. Ralph Andrews, Richmond, Va., and Prof. N. C. Curtis, Auburn, Ala.

The Dixie Dozen and K. K. Clubs were well represented, also the A. T. O's. had a goodly number in attendance.

A CHARMING RECITAL

That Given Yesterday Evening at Seashore Hotel by Miss Mitchell.

The recital given last evening in the concert hall of the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, by Miss Shatteen Mitchell, a gifted elocutionist of Atlanta, Ga., who is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Curtis-Arnall North, assisted by Mrs. Norma Foster Edwards, violinist, and Mrs. F. W. Holden, soprano, was pronounced by quite all in attendance a charming success from every viewpoint. Miss Mitchell is an elocutionist of fine and highly cultivated talent and her assistants more than sustained their high local favor with those who appreciate the best in music.

The recital was well attended and opened with an overture by Nixon's splendid orchestra. Miss Mitchell gave first a comedy character sketch that served as a fitting introduction to the other high-class numbers given during the remainder of the evening. Mrs. Edwards charmed her hearers with the violin solo "Sarabande" and Miss Mitchell next gave the reading "The Governor's Last Levee," which brought out and displayed to her hearers the fine qualities of her voice and expression. "Could I" was a beautiful solo by Mrs. Holden, with Mrs. Mattie Chasten as accompanist, the singer responding to an enthusiastic encore with the "Supposing" song which was equally good with the original number. Miss Mitchell in a comedy monologue kept her audience laughing all the while, responding to an encore with "The Heavenly Guest," which showed the wide range of the elocutionist's renderings. "Barcause" was a classical selection by Mrs. Edwards on the violin and Mrs. Holden sang with charming effect the Irish Folk Song, responding to an encore with the Florian Song. "Old Mistis," by Miss Mitchell, closed the programme and left the audience with a decidely agreeable impression of the evening's entertainment.

The concert was for the benefit of the Associated Charities and it is gratifying to know that the recital was a success from the financial standpoint.

CORPORATIONS CHARTERED

Raleigh Company to Improve Water Works—State Enterprises.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 3.—A charter was granted this morning for the Wake Construction Company of Raleigh, having for its purpose the installation of extensive improvements in the plant that supplies the water for Raleigh. The capital is $25,000 and H. E. Litchford, Julius Lewis, C. M. Busbee are among the principal incorporators. The details of the contemplated improvement have not been announced yet.

Four other charters are granted. The Carolina Ice Machine Company, Charlotte, Capital $25,000 by C. L. Alexander, S. S. Miles and others for making ice, dealing in lumber and other things. The Fuquay Springs, Tarboro Warehouse Company, of Wake county capital $10,000 by K. B. Johnson and others.

COL. CEBURN HARRIS DEAD.

Passed Away Thursday Night at His Home in Raleigh.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 3.—Raleigh lost last night one of her oldest and most esteemed citizens in the death of Col. Ceburn Lemuel Harris, aged 86 years. He had lived in Raleigh since 1867 except for a few years that he lived in Rutherfordton, being mayor of the town during the time. He served two terms in the State Senate from the district composed of Rutherfordton, Polk and Cleveland counties. He escorted Governor Vance in 1864 through the Western section of the State on his campaign for the Governorship, was a member of the constitutional convention, and was elected superintendent of public works in the first election under the reconstruction acts back in 1868. He married Susan S. Logan in 1846. She and two children survive, Col. J. C. L. Harris, Raleigh, and Mrs. F. T. Lee, New York. He had made his home with Col. J. C. L. Harris here for a number of years.

STATE VETERINARIANS.

Annual Medical Convention Now in Session in Raleigh.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 3.—The North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association is in 7th annual session here, Dr. A. G. Roberts, of Raleigh, presiding and Dr. Adam Fisher, of Charlotte, secretary. There is a very good attendance. Most of the sessions are being held out at the A. & M. College. A number of technical papers were read today receiving high commendation. Dr. J. A. Kiernan, in charge of the cattle tick eradication work in North Carolina, discussed Municipal Meat Inspection; Dr. Tait Butler, "Our Milk Supply as Related to Public Health," and Prof. John Hichaels, of the A. & M. College, treated "Hygiene of Milk." Among the other veterinarians who discussed professional subjects were Dr. J. L. Herring, Sr., Goldsboro; Dr. J. W. Merritt, Wilson; Dr. J. W. Petty, Durham; Dr. C. E. Smith, Newbern; Dr. Watt Ashcraft, Monroe; Dr. J. H. Hartmann, Deputy State Veterinarian. There were two applicants for license who stood the examination before the Board of Examiners yesterday. The result will be announced later.

STOPS ANY ITCHING.

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles. Wilmington People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Wilmington testimony to prove it:

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, 119 1-2 Market street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from a rash which appeared on various parts of my body. It itched constantly and I did not dare to rub it as that only made it worse. No one can imagine the suffering I endured. I tried everything that was recommended to me only to be disappointed with the results. When someone told me about Doan's Ointment, I was impressed in its favor and got a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. I immediately began its use and received the first relief that I had had for a long time and during the time which has passed, I have never had a return of the annoyance. I have recommended Doan's Ointment to several others believing it is the best remedy of its kind."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SEVEN KILLED IN RUSH

Explosion of Fireworks in Kress Store in Cleveland, Ohio.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cleveland, O., July 3.—Seven persons were killed, at least two others were fatally injured and fully thirty more were severely hurt as the result of a fire in Kress' Five and Ten Cent store on Ontario street today. The list of the dead includes the lady floor walker, aged 18; four young lady clerks, Mary Hughes, 27 years old, a shopper and James L. Parker, 47 years of age

The fire followed an explosion of fireworks on display. Opinions differ as to the exact cause of the explosion. A woman who was at the fireworks counter said the stock was ignited by sparks from a device which was being demonstrated to her by a clerk. Fire Chief Wallace and the store manager were of the opinion that the pieces were ignited by an arc light.

Immediately following the explosion an alarm of fire was sounded and a panic seized the hundreds of clerks and shoppers. A mad rush was made for the doors and windows. Many jumped from the second and third floor windows.

The store, which is located near the busiest corner in the downtown district, was well filled with shoppers, mostly women and children. Practically all of the clerks were young girls.

Although the explosion of the fireworks caused consternation, the real panic did not occur until some one shouted "Fire." For an instant a hush came over the crowd. Then women screamed, some fainted and sudden fear overcame them.

Crazed by the possibility of injury or death, all ou the main floor rushed for the front and rear doors. Quickly they were jammed in the front door way. During the jam those who had attempted to escape by the rear door were blocked in their progress. The main door was too small for all who sought safety there and the rear windows were closed with iron bars. Those who could not escape in this direction rushed to the front door. While practically every one on the main floor was able to leave without injury through the front door it was mainly because of the jam at that door that the unfortunate ones lost their lives.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW.

New York, July 3.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

It has been a very quiet week in trade and industry, seasonable influences, holiday observances and semi-annual stock taking giving a quiet appearance to most lines. At points where weather has favored reduction sales at retail rather earlier than usual in the year have made for some activity in summer goods but collections as a whole have been slow. Jobbing trade has been of a falling in character and wholesale trade is still of a conservative character awaiting the out-turn of the crops and political events. July first was set a re-employment day and many thousand hands were set at work, notably in car shops and machinery lines; but on the other hand printcloth production was curtailed, many glass works are reported to have shut down and the idleness due to the mid-summer inventory period has rather lobbed the resumption of work at many points of its imposing character.

Transportation seems rather quiet. While there is some increase in traffic the crop movement has not yet begun and lake traffic is reported quiet with many ships tied up and thousands of their operatives idle.

There is a continuance of the better feeling as to the future leading cotton goods houses advise purchases on the ground that cotton goods are at the bottom; Western wool men are asking higher prices for their clip, and the lumber trades are rather firmer. Foreign trade is quiet, exports of cereals are very light, wheat being down to the lowest of the year and corn exports being the smallest recorded.

Business failures for the week ending July 2, number 236, which compares with 258 last week; 153 in the like week of 1907, 134 in 1906, 127 in 1905, and 172 in 1904.

There was a more hopeful air last night about Fernleigh, the country estate where Bishop Henry C. Potter is lying critically ill, than at any time since it became apparent that the distinguished churchman was engaged in a severe struggle with a serious malady. Nevertheless, while the passage of another day with no appreciable change for the worse in the Bishop's condition affords his family and physicians some encouragement, there was no disposition apparent on their part to make this fact the basis for large hopes.

WARM WIRELETS.

General J. Franklin Bell, the chief of staff of the army, has issued orders to the 165th and 167th companies of coast artillery, now on duty at Fort Monroe, Va., to proceed to Fort Totten New York, for station on or about August 1st.

Another tug has been bought by the Isthmian Canal Commission for use on the Isthmus. She is the M. E. Scully of Perth Amboy and cost $64,500. The tug will be sent to the Isthmus about the middle of July, taking in tow two barges, now being built for the commission at Newport News.

The tugboat Sandish has been given orders to leave Annapolis, Md., on July 23rd and August 21st, with stores, packages and other necessaries for the naval academy practice squadron now in New England waters. The torpedo boat Manly will proceed from Annapolis to the Navy yard, Norfolk, Va., for repairs.

There is a rumor in Norfolk that the Atlantic Coast Line will purchase the Norfolk & Southern if its reorganization scheme fails. Mr. Henry Walters recently took over a large block of the N. & S. stock and it is believed his road would be glad to take over the smaller system since it cuts through valuable Coast Line territory and could be made a valuable feeder instear of a formidable competitor as now.

William J. Bryan in a speech last night before the Nebraska Traveling Men's Club at Lincoln made the significant statement that unless the Denver convention incorporated in its platform a campaign contribution publicity plank it might look elsewhere than to Nebraska for a candidate for President. The declaration was made in connection with a discussion he indulged in regarding the Republican national convention in failing to insert such a plank after President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft had both declared themselves in favor of such action and was made with a sincerity that left no doubt in the minds of his hearers that he meant all he said.

BIG G CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents Contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

MEN AND WOMEN

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles $2.75. Circular sent on request.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is perfectly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Newbern Sun: Perhaps no man was more surprised than Hon. W. C. Newland, of Lenoir, Caldwell county, when he was nominated for lieutenant governor. He was a candidate for Attorney General. He is a good man and will add strength to the ticket.

—Charlotte Observer: Seized with fits of laughing which indicated that he had been bereft of reason, a negro named Will Watt was locked up at the behest of his father and mother last night. Watt took his laughing spells after being arrested and imprisoned, almost anything appearing to him sufficient to bring forth a hearty holler.

—Spencer, July 2.—It is currently reported here that the men, about 500 in number, suspended from the service of the Southern Railway Company here last winter will be reinstated at an early date. It is known that business on the road has been exceptionally good recently. Thirteen peach and vegetable trains passed Spencer yesterday northbound, and as many more today.

—The Robesonian: A one week's term of Robeson Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases will begin Monday morning, Judge Crawford T. Biggs, of Durham, presiding. The special term of one week which was ordered at the request of the county commissioners to follow the regular term has been called off at the request of the members of the Lumberton bar.

—The Robesonian: The field work of the Government soil survey corps which has been carried on from Lumberton as headquarters for some time, is now practically completed, with the exception of getting a few samples and some information as to a few township bearings. The work here winds up the work of the county and the map, which will be an exceedingly valuable one, will be ready for distribution in about twelve months.

—Charlotte Observer: Guards Sam Patterson and C. A. Todd, who were held responsible for the killing of Jim McNeely Wednesday when he was trying to escape from them, were exonerated by the coroner's jury yesterday of all criminal guilt in regard to the affair. McNeely was being transferred from one chain gang to another when he tried to escape and was shot.

—Lumberton Robesonian: Dr. Thurman D. Kitchin, of Scotland Neck, a brother of Hon. W. W. Kitchin, Democratic nominee for Governor, and Congressman Claude Kitchin, arrived last night to locate here for the practice of medicine. Dr. Kitchin was graduated in medicine at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, last spring and recently passed his examination before the State Medical Board with high honors.

—Monroe, July 2.—The offices of the superintendent of the third division of the Seaboard Air Line will be located in Monroe after this week. Superintendent W. A. Gore and his force of assistants will occupy the upper part of the building above the offices of the Southern Express Company, at the foot of LaFayette street. This means a welcome addition of about fifty persons to the population of Monroe.

—Mount Olive Tribune: The first excursion of the season will be run from Mount Olive to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach on Friday, July 17th under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday School of our town. Fare for the round trip will be: Adults, $1.25; children under 12 years of age, 75 cents. It is more than probable that a great many people will avail themselves of this inexpensive opportunity to spend a pleasant day at the beach.

—Newbern Journal: A man named Green was up before Justice of the Peace J. M. Hines yesterday for keeping a blind tiger. Green is a white man, not a native of Newbern, who has for several years been living on a small houseboat passing up and down the waters of the Trent and Neuse rivers, fishing and hunting, and taking life easy. He has appeared inoffensive, always, and it was a surprise when he was accused of such a nefarious crime. The Justice required a justified bond of $1,000, but the amount was finally reduced to a somewhat lower figure.

—Charlotte Observer: The examinations which have been in progress at the city hall by the more than forty young men and one young lady, Miss Daisy McGuire, of Asheville, who are applicants for license to practice dentistry in North Carolina, have come to a close. At present the examining directors are poring over the papers, while the applicants are on the anxious bench. It is possible that the results will be made known today. A day or two, sometimes longer, is required usually to read and grade the papers.

—Fayetteville, July 2.—The Public Works Commission at a meeting called to consider the propositions of the General Carolina Power Company and the Little River Power and Transmission Company to furnish the municipality with electric power has decided to accept the proposition of the Little River Power & Transmission Company. The decision was in accordance with the advice of the consulting engineer, Mr. A. D. O'Brien, of Wilmington, who was employed by the Public Works Commission at the suggestion of the Board of Aldermen, to advise the commissioners in the capacity of an expert. He transmitted a written report to the board recommending that the proposition of the Little River Company be accepted. The company will be required to furnish a bond to deliver the power within six months.

This Much Piano Free

The Rest On Easy Terms

You can actually effect a cash saving of $113 by joining with ninety-nine other people in the Ludden & Bates piano club now forming. By selling pianos in this way, a hundred at a time, instead of one, we so reduce expense that our club members get a genuine $400 instrument for only $287;—a saving of almost a third.

Better still, the club terms are so easy that anyone can have a piano. But little cash is needed. You pay $10.00 and receive your piano when you join the club; the balance in little monthly payments.

The Ludden & Bates New Scale PIANO

is in every respect equal to any $400 piano in the world. Full cabinet grand, balanced scale, made perfect by the finest skill and material. Double repeating action, genuine ivory keys and artistic cases of fancy walnut, mahogany or oak. Full, sweet tone, with that peculiar singing quality found only in the highest grade pianos.

In case of the death of the head of the family we cancel the club contract and make you an outright present of the unpaid balance. The piano then belongs to you absolutely. This free life insurance has allowed the completion of many a musical education, and is worth your consideration. It is practically an assurance that you will not lose your piano through inability to pay dues.

Write us at once for an application blank and complete description of different styles of finish. In this way you can make a selection that will delight you. You can leave the question of tone to us. We will see that you get a perfect instrument. A well-made, attractive stool and a beautiful scarf go with each piano. Write for full information of the club that is now forming.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 3.—The dry goods jobbing houses closed at 1 o'clock for the holiday. Trade generally was very quiet for the day. White goods for 1908 will be shown on Monday. Large duplicate orders for staple prints came forward during the day. Many lines of fine and fancy cottons will be opened during the coming week. The local wool market holds steady but the demand is not especially large. Re-exports of Persian wools are to be made in the near future. Burlaps are easier after the quietest week of the year.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, July 3.—There is nothing in the modern annals of the stock exchange to furnish a parallel to the diminutive figure of the day's sales, which amounted to only 71,000 shares.

Many brokers absented themselves in prolongation of the holiday which is set tomorrow. Foreign markets supplied no assistance to relieve the stagnation, conditions in London, Paris and Berlin being described as extremely apathetic. Everything in the day of news was treated with absolute indifference.

The Treasury's call for return of $45,000,000 of government deposits was of little importance in the existing state of the money market and was ignored.

The bank statement for the five days shows the effect of the trust companies' withdrawals to bring their proportion of reserve up to the new 10 per cent. requirement which went into effect on July 1, the $11,300,000 decrease in cash comparing with known movement of money into bank reserves of over $3,000,000. The considerable loan expansion is in consonance with the heavy financing of the turn of the half year.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,050,000. United States 2s registered have advanced 1-2 per cent. on call during the week. Total sales today 71,000 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, July 3.—Money on call easy 1 to 1 1-4 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-4, closing bid 1, offered at 1 1-4. Time loans weak and dull, sixty days 1 1-2 to 2 per cent., and ninety days 2 per cent. Six months 3 1-2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 3 1-2 to 4 per cent., sterling exchange firm with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8695 for demand and at 4.8560 to 4.8570 for sixty day bills. Commercial bills 4.85 1-4 to 4.85 3-8. Bar silver 53 3-4. Mexican dollars 46.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 3.—The State of clearing house banks for the week (five days) shows that the banks held $54,695,300 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent. reserve rule. This is a decrease of $11,403,500 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week.

The statement follows: Loans $1,241,096,500, increase $9,875,700; deposits $1,320,472,800, increase $294,400; circulation $56,459,900, decrease $349,300; legal tenders $78,189,400, decrease $1,283,300; specie $306,623,600, decrease $10,046,600; reserve $384,813,000, decrease $11,329,900; reserve required $330,117,700, increase $73,600; surplus $54,695,300, decrease $11,403,500; ex-U. S. deposits $59,191,675, decrease $11,667,050.

The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing house banks at the close of business yesterday was 28.98. The statement of banks and trust companies of Greater New York not members of the clearing house shows that these institutions have aggregate deposits of $993,350,900; total cash on hand $89,608,800 and loans amounting to $907,862,500.

NOT DAUNTED BY CRITICISM

Judge Parker Stands by His Proposed Resolutions as to Cleveland.

TAMMANY NOT SO SURE

That It Will Endorse Action of Judge Parker in This Matter—The Draft of Resolutions Yet Tentative. The Discussion.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., July 3.—Refusing to be ruffled by the storm of criticism from Bryan men which was aroused by his resolutions eulogizing the late ex-President Grover Cleveland, Judge Alton B. Parker today issued a pacific statement reiterating his determination to submit to the Democratic National convention s ch an expression as he and his associate s of the New York delegation regard as fitting and proper.

In this connection Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and head of the New York State delegation, who also arrived here today, announced that he had never seen the Parker resolution; that they did not represent the views of the New York delegation and that any resolution to be offered must be first submitted to a caucus of the State delegation to be held on Monday.

Judge Parker would not discuss the comments by Henry Watterson, of Louisville, Ky., upon his resolutions and in fact he declined to give his opinion of any interviews by prominent Democrats, based upon the tentative draft. He said, however, that he is not irrevocably committed to the tribute prepared by him in New York, but that he believes the resolutions adopted should suitably acknowledge the debt owed Mr. Cleveland by the Democratic party. Judge Parker's statement follows:

"Regarding the preparation and introduction of resolutions expressing the deep regret of all good citizens whether Democratic or Republicans at the recent death of Mr. Cleveland and making formal recognition by the Democratic party of the great services he rendered the country, I have only this to say:

"It seemed to some members of the New York delegation proper that such resolutions should be presented to the convention and peculiarly fitting that they should emanate from the State which he served so well as Governor and which gave him to the Union to become one of the most honored of our many great Presidents. It also seemed appropriate to some of my associates, and I do not hesitate to say frankly for reasons that appear obvious, that I should be the one to offer such resolutions, and it was and is my intention to do so. Whether they will take the form indicated by the tentative draft published in New York since I left there, I cannot say, for the simple reason that I have not had time to study it carefully. I shall do so as soon as I have the opportunity and shall embody such portions as seem to me suitable in the resolution which I hope to have the privilege of offering.

"Any suggestion that my colleagues or myself were actuated by any motive other than a desire to pay proper tribute on a fitting occasion is wholly without foundation, as I am confident every fair-minded man will recognize when I shall have completed the resolution for submission to the convention."

The statement given out by Mr. Murphy was as follows:

"My attention has just been called to an interview said to have been given by Judge Parker and to resolutions about Mr. Cleveland which he talks of introducing at the convention. I have not seen or heard of the resolutions before. They represent, I take it, his personal views, but have not been submitted to a caucus of New York delegates and cannot be put forward as representing the views of the delegation. All resolutions or planks offered by New York State will be first acted upon by a caucus of delegates..

"New York comes to this convention to bring all delegates together and to win a victory, and we take only such action as will bring about that result. We hope the delegates from all other parts of the country are animated by the same spirit as in that way only can an end be put to Republican misrule."

Skillfully sparring all questions relating to his position on the platform and declining to give his opinion as to whether he believed Mr. Bryan would be nominated, Judge Parker said emphatically that to answer such he would be placed in a false light. He declared that whatever platform is adopted by the convention and no matter who is the nominee for President, that he would support the ticket and do everything in his power to contribute to its election. He said that a change of rule is needed and that he believed there is general dissatisfaction throughout the country with the long continued Republican administration.

PRE-CONVENTION NOTES

City Ready For Meeting—Bryanites Exercised Over Proposed Resolution Eulogizing Grover Cleveland—Second Place.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., July 3.—Denver, the new convention city of the West, broke forth in brilliant patriotic splendor today, a cool breeze sweeping in from the mountains sent hundreds of the flags and draperies of red, white and blue bunting dancing in a veritable riot of flashing colors.

Wires had been strung at short intervals across the principal downtown streets several days ago and last night the decorators set to work with a rush to place the floating flags and banners in position. The transformation coming in a single night, was most effective. The decorations of the business streets have been carried out in accord with a design decided upon some time ago. The plan for each street is identical and no private decorations have been permitted to interfere with the harmony of the general scheme. The Denver convention committee early sent out notices that no political organization would be permitted to stretch a banner across a street and this edict has strictly been adhered to. State headquarters and the headquarters of candidates are marked only by banners hung along the walls of the hotel or building where they are established.

The probability of a row in the convention over the wording of the resolution eulogizing the memory of Grover Cleveland, was somewhat diminished today. Judge Alton B. Parker, who drew up the resolutions which the Bryan men construed as being a direct slap at their leader, arrived during the day and at once announced that he had no intention of offending Mr. Bryan or any of his followers; that the resolution as printed was merely a tentative draft and that, while he was still determined to offer a Cleveland resolution and considered himself the most appropriate person to do so, its exact wording will be determined after he has consulted the members of the New York delegation.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, who arrived a few hours before Judge Parker reached Denver, also asserted that the Cleveland resolution was proper mattered for the New York delegation to consider before it was offered in the convention He said that Judge Parker had apparently written his resolution without consultation with other members of the New York delegation and asserted with much positiveness that no resolution should be introduced in the convention as coming from New York unless it had been submitted to the entire delegation and approved in the caucus

The Bryan people early in the day, although still angry and disturbed by the wording of the Parker resolution, declared that they were heartily in favor of a resolution eulogizing Mr. Cleveland and recognized that it could most appropairtely come from New York State. They also said that they are entirely willing that it shall be introduced by Judge Parker himself, provided he will so modify it as to eliminate all suggestion of past political differences between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cleveland.

The members of the New York delegation who have so far arrived deny that they intend to make a direct fight upon Mr. Bryan personally, but say that if they can satisfy themselves that the chances of success will be brighter with another man at the head of the ticket, they will do what they can to secure the nomination and election of that man.

The Vice Presidential situation showed no change during the day, although the arrival of Martin W. Littleton, of New York, added strength to his boom. Charles A. Towne, however, still claims that he will receive much of the strength of the Empire State. Mr. Kern, of Indiana, is favored by some of the western delegates, but declares he is not seeking the place and will undergo decided mental relief if some other man is nominated.

DEATH OF UNCLE REMUS

Joel Chandler Harris Passes Away After Short Illness.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Atlanta, Ga., July 3.—Joel Chandler Harris, familiarly known as "Uncle Remus" and an author of note, died at his home in a suburb of this city tonight. Dr. Harris, whose health had not been good for some time, had only been confined to his bed for about ten days, suffering from cirrhosis of the liver. Complication set in and yesterday he grew rapidly worse, and continued to sink until the end came at 8 o'clock today.

Joel Chandler Harris was born in Eatonton, Ga., December 9, 1848. He was married in 1873 to Miss Essie laRose, of Canada, and in 1876 moved to Atlanta, joining the staff of the Atlanta Constitution. It was while he was connected with the Constitution that his tales, "Stories by Uncle Remus," first attracted attention. In 1900 Mr. Harris retired from active journalism and until last year, when he became editor and proprietor of Uncle Remus Magazine spent most of his time at his suburban home. He is survived by his wife, four sons and two daughters.

Mr. Harris will be buried in Atlanta, but the funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Judge William H. Taft, the Republican candidate for the Presidency accompanied by Mrs. Taft and their young son, Charlie, left Washington at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Hot Springs, Va., arriving there at 1:30 this morning, after speaking at several places en route, telling the people at Staunton he hoped Virginia would swing into the Republican column as it would be good for the country to break the solid South.

MANY CALLERS AT FAIRVIEW

New York Editor Urges Mr. Bryan to Withdraw From Contest.

SOME ONE WHO CAN WIN

Mr. Bryan Thinks He is Man With or Without the Vote of New York State—The Question of Platform Discussed

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., July 3.—The stream of callers and of letters all expressive of the best wishes for the political future of W. J. Bryan was interrupted today when Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, called at Fairview and asked Mr. Bryan to "withdraw from the contest in favor of some Democrat who could win."

The interview between Mr. Ridder and Mr. Bryan was pleasant and of the frankest nature throughout. Mr. Ridder told Mr. Bryan in as many words that he would oppose him openly at the Denver convention, but in the event of his being nominated to head the ticket, that the Staats Zeitung and Mr. Ridder personally would support the ticket. Mr. Ridder told Mr. Bryan that it was a matter for the serious consideration of the latter whether or not he would accept a third nomination and wreck the chances of the Democratic party to elect its ticket at the coming election.

"I do not believe you can carry New York State if you are nominated," said Mr. Ridder. "I cannot agree with you," replied Mr. Bryan, "but even though I am unable to carry that State, I believe I can be elected without the electoral vote of New York."

Later Mr. Ridder gave out the substance of his talk with the Democratic leader which lasted half an hour. During the conference he presented to Mr. Bryan a typewritten copy of a proposed plank advocating the removal of tariff on wood pulp, to which Mr. Bryan wrote across the bottom: "I am in favor of the above plank just the way it is."

Mr. Ridder will carry this bit of paper to the convention and there is little doubt of its being incorporated in the platform adopted by the convention.

Mr. Ridder talked very plainly on the proposed resolution on the death of former President Cleveland saying: "I think the resolutions in this regard should be entirely devoid of anything ambiguous or of anything that would cause internal strife, and that the memory of Grover Cleveland should not be the subject of any quarrel. I think undue publicity has been given the matter and do not anticipate that it will be the cause of dissension in the convention."

Asked how Mr. Bryan took the proposition to withdraw from the Presidential race, Mr. Ridder said he smiled, but gave no direct reply.

"Our talk was a most pleasant one" said Mr. Ridder. "I told Mr. Bryan very plainly that I should have to go to the Denver convention opposed to his nomination and prepared to do all I could to oppose it. I also told him that in the event of the convention nominating him I would support him on a conservative platform.

"My ideas of a conservative platform are that the tariff shall be revised entirely on trust controlled articles and that a tariff for revenue only shall be retained on other commodities. These later I would not subject to the immediate removal of the duty, but rather revise the tariff and reduce it by degrees.

"As to finance I believe that securities on which our currency should be based should be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and that the collateral should be of such a nature as the different States permit savings banks to accept as an investment for their funds.

"The injunction plank, I believe, should favor a statute which will make it necessary for at least two judges to act on the final issue. One judge should issue the injunction and another decide the merits of the case. I did not have an opportunity to talk of this matter with Mr. Bryan, but I understood that he is in favor of a system of this nature, rather than have the cases submitted to a jury."

Mr. Ridder when asked what he would oppose said that he would not accept a declaration for free silver, or for Government ownership. He added also that it was the understanding that Mr. Bryan considered the silver issue dead, and that the Democratic leader did not wish a government ownership of railroads plank inserted.

The Vice Presidential race had second place in political gossip, chief interest centering in the visits of Mr. Ridder and Ollie James, who came to talk of his speech seconding the nomination of Mr. Bryan and the Commoner's editorial on Mr. Hearst.

Mr. Bryan was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the Nebraska Traveling Men's Bryan club tonight.
